STIPULATION

and ORDER

S&O # 99-02

WHEREAS, respondent Georgia A. Eaves has been licensed as an insurance broker and agent, authorized to transact life and health insurance business in the District of Columbia; and

WHEREAS, an investigation of the respondent has revealed violations of the District of Columbia Insurance Laws and/or Insurance Regulations; and

WHEREAS, respondent wishes to resolve said violations by entering into a stipulation with the Department of Insurance of Securities Regulation "the Department", subject to the approval of the Department's Commissioner, as follows:

1. Respondent waives her right to further notice and hearing in this matter and admits that she violated the following provisions of the District of Columbia's Insurance Laws:
 - A. Respondent, in the conduct of her affairs under her license, used fraudulent, coercive, and dishonest practices, and has shown herself to be untrustworthy in violation of D.C. Code § 35-1326(a)(9), in that:
 - i. On or about November 4, 1998, Respondent, as an agent with Primerica Life Insurance Company encouraged a potential client, living in the District of Columbia, to provide inaccurate information on an automobile insurance application;
 - ii. On or about November 4, 1998, Respondent, as an agent with Primerica Life Insurance Company offered to assist a potential client, living in the District of Columbia, to obtain a fraudulent proof of insurance certificate;
2. In consequence of the foregoing violations, Respondent consents to the immediate SUSPENSION of her license to transact Life and Health Insurance in the District of Columbia (Lic.No. AI 18648) for a period of six (6) months from the date of this Order; and consents to the imposition of a civil penalty of Two Hundred and Fifty ($250) dollars;

3. Respondent agrees to pay the imposed civil penalty in full, within Ninety (90) calendar days of this Order;
4. The Department agrees to waive any additional fines and penalties arising from the facts contained in the instant matter;
5. Respondent agrees that her failure to pay the agreed upon fine will automatically result in the revocation of her license without further proceedings from the Department;
6. Respondent acknowledges that this stipulation and any admission contained herein may be used against her if the Department of Insurance and Securities Regulation, having reason to believe this stipulation has been violated, institutes disciplinary action against respondent.
